We do offer different types of Membership, which are:

- Active Members $120: are licensed Registered Nurses who are employed in or interested in diagnostic or therapeutic imaging environments. Active members may vote, hold office, and serve on committees.
- Associate Members $120: are individuals who are interested in the goals and objectives of the Association. Associate Members may serve on appointed committees. Associate Members may not vote or hold elected office. (Associate members are non-nurses such as registered technologists, other allied health professionals, industry, etc., who have an interest in the goals and objectives of the Association)
- Student Members $30: Student Members are enrolled in nursing education or high school programs and do not currently hold a nursing license. Student Members may serve on appointed committees or task forces. Student Members may not vote or hold elected office.

Please note - Student Membership does not include a quarterly subscription to the Journal of Radiology Nursing.

- Retired Members $60: Retired Members are retired individuals who are 55 years of age or older and have been an ARIN member for at least one year.

Once you have selected your type of membership, you can proceed to register for the account with your preferred username, password and fill out your personal information.
