RECERTIFICATION

The Radiologic Nursing Certification Board, Inc. (RNCB®) works hard to maintain the standard of excellence among nurses who have made the commitment to set themselves apart as Certified Radiology Nurses by maintaining certification. A total of 91 nurses with the CRN® credential were due for recertification in May 2018. There were 57 nurses who renewed their certification and 34 that did not submit for recertification via continuing education credit. The recertification rate for this period was 62.64 %.

The RNCB would like to congratulate the following 57 nurses who met the stringent standards to maintain their certification in May 2018.
