"Hone Your Leadership Skills."

Congratulations! You have recently been promoted into a new leadership role. Now what? How do you continue to grow in this role and advance your career?

This action-oriented webinar is designed for RNs who are just starting along the path of nursing leadership. Content is designed to help you master important aspects of this phase of your career, regardless of title, setting or specialty.

Topics to be addressed in this intensive, live, free and interactive webinar include:

1. Exploring graduate degree options – which is the best one for your career?
2. Must-have technology skills for today's nursing leader
3. Advancing your communication skills – converting a poster presentation into a publication
4. Strategies to evade the pitfalls of new leaders
 - a. The "negativity trap"

- b. Avoiding the tough decisions
- c. Treating everyone the same
- 5. Balancing it all
 - a. Leading with Emotional Intelligence
 - b. Developing a work/life balance

Our presenter, Kristy Chunta, PhD, RN, ACNS, BC, is highly regarded for her ANA membership webinar presentations. During this webinar, Dr. Chunta will present real-world information and actions you can take to master your new role and advance your nursing leadership career.
