

VALUE PROPOSITION

Considering joining the Association for Radiologic & Imaging Nursing (ARIN)? ARIN members have access to a variety of exclusive opportunities and discounts, designed specifically to help you in your radiology nursing career.

Here's what you can expect as part of our global community:

ONLINE EDUCATION:

ARIN has a comprehensive Online Education Center with a variety of Continuing Education credits available. All webinars are free to members and other ARIN courses are offered at a discount. In addition to the annual convention, you can find online opportunities for contact hours such as webinars and directed Journal readings. Any course offered by ARIN automatically qualifies as radiology-specific for your CRN qualification.

Attend five webinars a year – save $50
Attend the annual convention – save up to $100
Attend an Imaging Review Course – save $125
Read five Directed Journal Reading articles – save $50

CRN EXAM DISCOUNT:

If you're interested in becoming a Certified Radiology Nurse (CRN®), then you should know that ARIN members receive a discount on CRN exam registration. Contact the Radiologic Nursing Certification Board (RNCB) for more details. We also offer the Imaging Review Course, which is discounted for members, both in person and online, to help you prepare for the exam and build your CE credits.

CRN exam registration – save $100

JOURNAL OF RADIOLOGY NURSING & PUBLICATIONS:

A subscription to the Journal of Radiology Nursing is included with each membership fee. You'll receive digital access to quarterly Journal issues, which include peer reviewed articles that explore the cutting edge of radiology nursing and related disciplines. A digital subscription is included in all membership fees, and a print subscription is available for just $12/year.

Journal of Radiology Nursing subscription – save $90 (Print subscription is $102 for non-members)

ARIN members also receive discounts on all of our publications. If you're new to radiology or preparing for the CRN exam, visit our online bookstore to begin learning. Members occasionally receive discounts on third party books as well – just keep an eye on ARIN communications for new deals.

Core Curriculum – save $25 (print) to $41 (e-book)
Radiologic & Imaging Nursing: Scope & Standards of Practice – save $10
Orientation Manual for Radiologic and Imaging Nursing – save $10
CRN Prep: The Practical Study Guide – save $10 (e-book) to $20 (print)

That's a savings of up to $570/year!

VALUE PROPOSITION

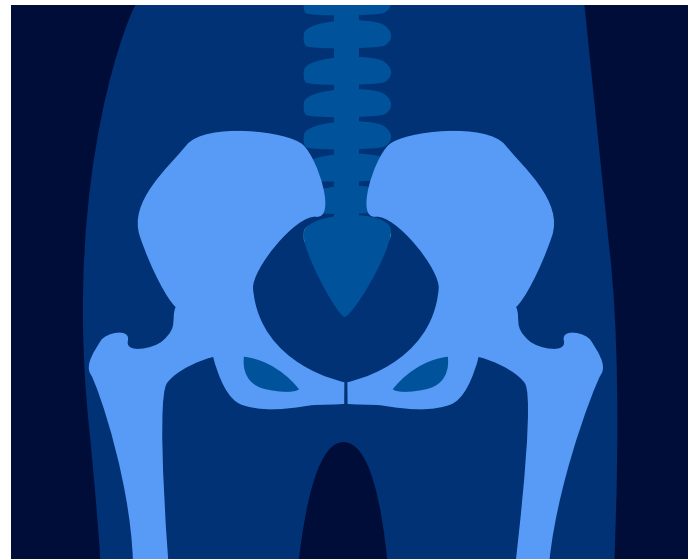

Plus, being a member also means you're connected to fellow radiology nurses and the latest industry news. If you're interested in connecting with fellow nurses who understand what you do, visit our Membership Forum. If you have a question about nursing, staffing or education, you can post it here. Or simply start a conversation with your fellow members.

ARIN also offers a series of awards and scholarships each year, some exclusively to members. It's our pleasure to recognize several leaders in the field and offer some prizes for exceptional contributions to the IR community. You're welcome to nominate yourself or another member.
